

The Office of the Vice President for Research Humanities Facilitating Fund

Guidelines for Intramural Funding

Funds:

The Office of the Vice President for Research will work with your School Finance Director to transfer the award funding to your department. You may work with your departmental administrator and Chair to access these funds beginning July, 2022.

Final Report:

A final report is due by August 30, 2023 that outlines what was accomplished during the award. The report form will be accessible through OVPR-InfoReady.

Human Subjects:

Any project that involves interviewing, surveying, testing, or observing people requires approval well in advance by the Institutional Review Board; see <http://humanresearch.gwu.edu/> for guidance (and allow plenty of time to complete the forms and receive IRB review).

Use of Animals:

Similarly, consult <http://research.gwu.edu/office-animal-research> for forms required to receive approval to do research involving animals.

Domestic Travel:

All travel must adhere to GW's Travel Policy found here:
<http://my.gwu.edu/files/policies/TravelEntertainmentFINAL.pdf>.

International Travel:

Please make your travel known to the Office of Study Abroad and consult the GW International Travel Approval Policy (<http://my.gwu.edu/files/policies/InternationalTravelApprovalFINAL.pdf>) and fill out all required forms, including those for insurance coverage for your research-related travel.

Responsibilities: Recipients are responsible for the following:

1. Compliance with GW guidelines and policies.
2. Proper management and expenditure of funds.
3. Submission of a brief report detailing what has been accomplished during the award period due by August 30, 2023.
