If awarded at an amount lower than the one proposed in the budget, the PI will be required to submit a revised budget to us within four weeks of award notification

Proposals that do not follow these guidelines may be returned for completion or declined without review
Proposal Components

Abstract/Summary – 1 Page Limit
- Concise overview of important aspects of your proposal and its conceptual framework
- Describes
  - The main goal of the project and how to accomplish, manage and evaluate it.
  - Project objectives.

Narrative – 4 page limit that includes the following four parts
1. Objectives/Specific Aims
   - Statement of the research question or problem being addressed.
   - Describe the tasks involved and how they will be accomplished.

2. Background/Significance
   - Background
     - Summarize relevant background information about the problem that is being addressed.
   - Significance
     - Discuss the importance of the proposed research in filling a gap of knowledge in the field.
     - What is the anticipated impact on the PI's research or that of others?
     - Discuss why the personnel involved are the best people to accomplish this.

3. Research Plan/Methods
   - Detail the approach to the research question/problem.
   - This section must contain the following components:
     - Statement of Problem/Issue – e.g., to test a hypothesis, to address a critical need, to construct a specific model.
     - Action Plan – Describe methods used to accomplish the goals stated in the Specific Aims section.
     - Potential Pitfalls – Address how the research will address any potential pitfalls.

4. Outcomes
   - Discuss how the results of the proposed project relate to the original overall goal of the proposal.
   - Propose next steps for this proposed project once these goals are achieved.
   - Detail how the outcomes of the proposed project will place the PI in a good position to submit external grant proposals.

Budget Justification – 1 Page Limit
- Narrative summary of all project expenses. (This is in addition to the line-item budget found here: http://research.gwu.edu/intramuralfunding/universityfacilitatingfund)
- Allows for the PI to explain why particular funds and their amounts were requested in the budget.
- To elaborate on the reasons why specific funds were requested, why they are necessary to the proposed project, and that they are reasonable.
- Presented in the same sequence of categories as on the line-item budget page.

Proposals that do not follow these guidelines may be returned for completion or declined without review
Biosketch – 2 Biosketches – 1 for each PI

- A biosketch written in a format mandated by a federal agency, such as NIH or NSF may be used.
- If the PI does not have a biosketch that was used in a proposal submission to a federal agency, they are to create a CV that includes the following information:
  - Education/Training – (Degree/Year/Field of Study/Institution/Location)
  - Research & Professional Experience – (Dates/Institution or Employer Name/Position)
  - Funding History – (List Proposals submitted/awards received during the past 3 years)
  - Publications – (up to ten)
- The PI is the only person on a proposal who should submit a biosketch.

Letters of Support – 2 Letters – 1 for Each PI

- The department chairs of both of the PIs must provide a short (one-page) statement on departmental letterhead.
- If a department chair is applying for the Food for Thought Program, they are to ask their research dean or a senior faculty member for a letter of support.
- Department chairs are to email the scanned letter to askovpr@gwu.edu as a PDF.
- The letter should include details pertaining to:
  - How the proposal relates to the goals of the department and/or University.
  - How this project will lead to future external funding.
- The department chair must acknowledge that if this proposal is awarded, faculty members will be given the protected time needed to complete the work.
